The Oaks at Wildwood Honored as 2009 Community of the Year by Home Builders Association of Greater Austin

Georgetown, Texas – May 4, 2009 – On Saturday, May 2, the Home Builders Association (HBA) of Greater Austin awarded the Oaks at Wildwood with the 2009 MAX Award for Community of the Year at their 18th annual Marketing and Advertising Excellence (MAX) Awards and Gala.

“We are extremely honored to be chosen as the 2009 Community of the Year recipient from the Home Builders Association of Greater Austin”, stated David Blackburn, President of the Oaks at Wildwood development group. “The Oaks has truly become a unique and special place in Georgetown with its beautiful architecture, maintenance free living, and all of the many amenities it offers. However, the Oaks at Wildwood community truly stands out due to the residents that make it such a wonderful place to live and enjoy.”

The MAX Awards is presented by the HBA of Greater Austin, made up of more than 850 home building industry firms. For more than 56 years, the HBA of Greater Austin has served as the leading not-for-profit trade organization dedicated to residential construction and remodeling in Central Texas. The HBA works with government, public, business and community organizations in five counties to protect every family’s right to home ownership.

In addition to winning the 2009 MAX Award for Community of the Year, the Oaks at Wildwood also received the 2009 Silver Award for Best Community Website.

About The Oaks at Wildwood

Inspired by the style and grace of European Country design, The Oaks at Wildwood is an age restricted single story maintenance free community located in historic Georgetown, TX. The Oaks offers 86 two- and three-bedroom homes, clustered in a private and choice setting. An exclusive designer-decorated clubhouse, with a fitness center and heated swimming pool, is the centerpiece of this retirement condominium community for a variety of activities for active adults within this close-knit neighborhood.

The Oaks at Wildwood residents are those who have chosen to lead a rich and fulfilling lifestyle fostered by the ease and charm the Oaks community offers and complemented by all the conveniences of nearby shopping, restaurants, recreation and medical facilities as well as Georgetown's beautiful downtown area.
